

THEATRE II: Original One Act Play

Name: _____

Play Title: _____

Criteria:	3 - Consistent	2 - Sometimes	1- Lacking	SCORE
Storyline Play includes a strong, central conflict that pushes the story forward. The play has a defined beginning, middle, and end. Strong characters and character relationships evident.
Characters Characters are clearly identified and described. Characters are interesting, with the protagonist showing signs of change by the end of the piece.
Dialogue Dialogue is conversational and clearly demonstrates each character's preferred diction. Dialogue clearly reveals character objectives and perspectives.
Stage Directions Stage directions are present throughout the play, enhancing the dialogue and character development. Design elements provided are specific. Stage directions present also define important pieces of information (setting; etc.)
Style The playwright followed assignment requirements. The play is relatable and includes a clear message or theme. Tone is consistent throughout the piece.

TOTAL: ____/15